

Ten Golden Rules with Dogs!

1. Never touch a dog without asking the owner first

2. Be calm and quiet around dogs; try not to make sudden movements

3. Do not tease a dog. Dogs do not like having their ears, tail or fur pulled

4. Never touch a dog that is sleeping

5. Only play with a dog when an adult is with you

6. Do not kiss or put your face near a dog - even your own dog. You should not let a dog lick your face

7. Always keep away from dogs that are busy, bored dogs, dogs that are unwell or dogs that are tied up

8. Do not pester dogs and keep following them around. Allow the dog to come to you.

9. Do not run from a dog, screaming and waving your arms around

10. Always ask your parents and the dogs owner before stroking an unfamiliar dog

How to be a tree...

If a dog frightens you and is not on a lead... you must remember to be a tree!

Stand completely still

Let go of whatever you are holding

Fold your arms across your chest

Tuck your chin in to your chest

Pretend that the dog is not there

Do not wave your arms around

Do not scream

Wait for an adult to come and collect you
